

Random Ruins Of Reality, The Dark Side

feed your dark side
go and betray your bride shoot the ones who cry
and then draw their life let'em know your might they will pray to die
they will beg the sky
feed your dark side
Rit.

do what it wants you to do maybe it'll rot your soul but there's nothing to do you've just got to
feed your dark side
kick that damned child
give him to fire
and forget him
you don't need him
feed your dark side
hide the truth in lies
love no one else but yourself
feed your dark side
care not of plights
stare at what you find
you hear no fly
there's no one in sight
you are the one
you've served it well
here's the reward
feed your dark side
Rit.
