

Randy Bachman, It's Only Money

Aint it crazy - aint it funny
Playin games and losing money
Its easy come and easy go
You play the race, win, place or show

Some choose the blues
They make their own bad luck
They bring their own bad news
Make it heads you win, and tails you lose
Its only money, its only money

Its so easy, gettin credit
Just sign your llife away, thats how you get it
Its in one pocket and out the other
It moves so fast, why do we bother?

Im on a roll, Im not mistaken
My palms are sweating, my knees are shakin
Lifes a gamble, no way to fake it
You see a chance, you gotta take it

Dont choose the blues
Just be your own good luck
And bring your own good news
Make it heads you win, and tails they lose
Its only money (5 and dime)
Its only money (yours and mine)
Its only money (see it shine)
Its only money (its so fine)
