

Randy Meisner, How Did U Know

we sit around feelin all starbound we leave so soon soon we go to the moon we got to get so high i make the things grow

how did u know it was me did i give it away so easily i put things up on the roof they all laughed thought it was stupid it made me so sad and hurt there was once a little game no-one knew the rules it was for fame pretty silly more for kids but the team they liked the fridge always scoffin grabbin the milk n stuff then sittin down n watchin crufts i never liked it but it wernt about me

that i wernt as smart as i made out u might be thinkin what im about but im not sure myself i dont understand that it didnt go as i planned this little song has no meaning just thought up while i was dreamin it is all calm and so mellow with ash uve got a nice fellow ive always thought about life if ill get old n have a wife will she be anything like me and will she compare to ash mistry hmmmmm hmmm hmmm ohhhhh yeah hmmmmm hmmm hmmm ohhhhh yeah
