Randy, Pump The Brakes

genocide on genocide - destroyed knowledge crushed pride lost culture to civilization - reduced abused beyond dignity contemplation exploitation - ring the bell of information blocked the truth convincing, controlling - held us down unthinking, unknowing oppressed so many for so long - we've ignored the facts, and moved along we gotta pump the brakes wasting resources, face some facts and detect the causes - cause our progression equals destruction, people getting killed by government corruption cause making most of the land, that's the plan, you gotta understand that 50 years down the line, there wont be no time, the time is now. drained so much for so long - we've ignored the costs and moved along time to pump the brakes, pump pump the brakes...