

Randy, Razorblade

Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.
I got myself a razor.
Makes me strong enough to face her.
Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.

Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.
I'll let you count my stitches
Let you know how much it itches.
Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.
Don't need a switchblade or a knife.
To deprive someone their lives.

Come take a walk with me.
I got something you must see.
Don't let the moment fade.
While I take out my razorblade.

Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.
Even though it cuts real deep.
It still wont make you weep.
Razorblade, I got myself a razorblade.
Don't need a time bomb or a gun.
If we're going to have some fun.
Don't have to slash your wrist.
Just to prove that you exist.
Look at this scars it made.
While I take out my razorblade.
