

Randy, The Pretender

I don't believe in god, I don't believe in fate.
I don't trust governments and I don't trust the state.
I'm not part of any movement or community.
Oh no it's not for me.

I don't believe in evil, I don't believe in sin.
I don't think that good and bad is a fight someone can win.
I'm not part of any party or society.
It's not for me.

They say that its a hard reality, not for me the pretender.
They say you have to struggle to be free.
Well not for me the pretender.
They say that its a hard reality, not for me the pretender.
Not for me and my pretend reality.
