

Rasputina, The Vaulted Eel

The vaulted eel is lost at sea
Playing by the swans
His figure eights and knocking pins
Left the heart unharmed

Drippy days you'll see him land
Tasting grief and tie our hands
Whistling hymns and soothing songs
Mama says he'll right your wrongs

Likes to listen when you cry
Takes the pain and lets us fly

Things you do impresses us
From left brook grazing in Munich
When I see your blazing dream
His neck turns very soft

Drippy days you'll see him land
Tasting grief and tie our hands
Whistling hymns and soothing songs
Mama says he'll right your wrongs

Likes to listen when you cry
Takes the pain and lets us fly

He likes to listen when you cry
