

Raven-Symon, In The Pictures

There's a photo book
That can tell you countless of me
So many memories
I remember every one of them
One look and the moment comes right back to me
I can see it clearly
All the details right in front of me
And all so livingly
Every story, every moment playing back just like it's on a movie screen

[Chorus:]

It's all there
It's all there in the pictures
It's all there in the pictures
Captured pieces of my life
Like a voyage into time
It's all there
It's all there
It's all there in the pictures
It's all there in the pictures
All the faces all the places
My gentle memories
It's all there
I remember this
Like it happened just moments ago my laughter wouldn't cease
Like escaping into history
Quiet little voyage of a memory
It amazes me
To see what has come of me
Still but yet in motion
Worth a thousand words
Or even millions more

[Chorus]

Flipping through the pages, all the many stages, different ages
As time passes my Life flashes right in front of me
Who'd have guessed the things were to come
From reflections of what used to be
It amazes me to see what has come of me
Still but yet in motion
Worth a thousand words

[Chorus x2]
