

Raven-Symon, Stupid

(feat. Sean Garrett)

You got what most dames want (oh oh oh oh)
But it ain't what I came to see (uh huh I know)
You don't know bout my game zone (oh oh oh oh)
Time to show this boy a harder me

Ay

You talking like you know what I

Want

Before you start pursuing baby

Whoa

You run girl like a track star

But I'm more like a NASCAR

Blowin it back at ya

Please

I knew I wasn't talkin from the Door

We were gonna kiss, make my hair twist, have me lookin crazy

No

This is obviously this is your thing right

Trickin' girls to think their the only ones you're feelin right

Stupid, stupid I'm not

I've been around here baby

That means I'm on it

And I'm used to sucker boys like you

Stupid, stupid I'm not

You talk about it baby

But when it comes to a real girl wants

You just don't know what to do

You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)

You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)

You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)

You think you know but you don't (You just don't know what to do)

Hey

You told my girl that I'm with you

Whoa

Did you know Veronica had

Shown

The message that you sent sayin

He wanted to be her man and I was never in your plans

Please

I told you you ain't nothing I

Want

So why you keep blowin up my

Phone

You stuntin' and you poppin' right

Do us both a favor and stop callin on a late night

[Chorus]

Shorty I can change

Your whole life in a day

I don't even think you know

I can do the things

Them other boys can't hang

I'm everything you want

Come on flip the page

Let me show you they can't tame me

I can be you baby

So tell me why you actin so shady

Cause you know damn well you want to be my lady

[Chorus]
