Raven-Symon, What Are You Gonna Do

(feat. Sean Garrett)
Got to know, Got to know... are you do [x4]
For starters just to reveal
And give them nothing but share
Show no affection, oh no
You keep bothering me with
If I would only give in
The world could be anything I want
Even if you made a ton of diamonds start falling from the sky tonight
It wouldn't be enough to prove
And if you really wanna be impressive stop talkin what it could be like
Cause boys runnin their mouth ain't cool
Ba ba ba ba ba boom
What are you gonna do (If I can't, If I can't give some of my time)
What are you gonna do (If, If I let you get in my mind)
What are you gonna do (I don't think you're ready)
Keep saying you say you wanna tell, won't you tell me
What are you gonna do
Oh oh oh...
You want to know my details
But boys like you ought to be careful
You have a tendency to be all false
Just like you told me that was his whip
Come to find out it ain't even his
My intuitions never wrong
Even if you made a ton of diamonds start falling from the sky tonight
It wouldn't be enough to prove
And if you really wanna be impressive stop talkin what it could be like
Cause boys runnin their mouth ain't cool
[Chorus]
Oh oh oh...
[Chorus x2]
