

Ray Boltz, Give Me Your Hand

Give Me Your Hand

Words and music by Ray Boltz

I was climbing up a mountain
Headed for the top
My feet started sliding
And I almost fell off
I landed on a rocky ledge
Suspended in the air
And I cried out in despair
I said, Is anybody out there?
Anybody there at all?
Then I saw Him reaching down
And I heard Him call,

CHORUS:

Give me your hand, I'll lift you up
Don't be afraid
You just have to trust
I have been there in the place you stand
There's no need to fear
That's why I'm here
Give me your hand

How can I repay you?
You truly saved my life
The Savior smiled
And He said, That's alright
Tomorrow when you're climbing
Look around you on the way
There are many others to be saved...

Crying, Is anybody out there?
Anybody there at all?
Reach out to them, remember me, and call,

CHORUS (repeat)

There's no need to fear
That's why I'm here
Give me your hand
There's no need to fear
That's why I'm here
Give me your hand
