

Ray Charles, Oh, What A Beautiful Morning

(Intro):

There's a bright golden haze in the meadow.
There's a bright golden haze in the meadow.
The corn is as high as an elephant's eye.
And it looks like it's climbing clear up to the sky...

(End Intro):

Well, oh what a beautiful morning, aw now.
Yes, what a wonderful day. (Look out there).
You know I - I've got a beautiful feeling.
Everything's - everything's going my way. (Ya'll c'mon now).

Whoa, the cattle are standing like statues.
The cattle are standing like statues.
They don't turn their heads as they see me ride by.
But a little brown maverick is winkin' her eye. She said...

Oh, what a beautiful morning. Yeah!
Well, what a wonderful day. I want ya'll to know, oh now.
I've got a beautiful feelin'.
I got everything - everything's goin' my way.
Everything's goin' my way - my way.
(Alright ya'll, do it to me)...

&lt;horn solo&gt;
(Oh! Alright now! A-Ha.)...

Whoa, the sounds of the earth are like music.
The sounds of the earth are like music.
The breeze is as busy, it don't miss a tree.
And a little ol' weepin' willow is laughin' at me. She said...

Oh, what a beautiful morning! (Alright now!).
Yes! What a wonderful day. Alright?
Yeah, I got a beautiful feelin'.
I got everything - I got everything - I got everything. (Whoo!).
Everything's goin' my way - My way. Hah ha.
Everything's goin' my way.
Whoa, baby. Oh, baby.
I wanna thank you little girl - for such a wonderful day.
Oh, I got a beautiful feelin'.
Everything's goin' my way...
