

Ray Charles, Simpatica

Simpatica

One look in your eyes and I knew you
Touching your hand bound me to you
You understand, for you are simpatica.

Simpatica

You don't have to talk to inspire me
Don't have to say you desire me
Day after day you are so simpatica.

You speak and it's the sweetest music
I have ever heard

You taught me how to live again

The day you taught me

That single word

Simpatica

I know that our love must be deathless.

Your little kiss leave me breathless

You must know this if you are simpatica

And you are so

Simpatica!
