

Raze, More Than A Dream

(chorus1)

could it really be is this what you've planned for me cause it's more than i can dream of my heart has never felt such glory each day is like a never ending story oh.... i lay here with my eyes wide open it's so hard to describe how i feel in this moment i can fly i'll wake up and hope i'm not dreamin could it be, is this true, is it real, yeah this vision makes me cry it's here that your calling me with voice through history

(chorus2)

could it really be
each day is like a never ending story show me what you see in me and how this becomes reality i'm willing to be what you see here is my all heart and soul take my hand, take my will take control i promise i won't let go i'm trusting in what you see i'm waiting here patiently yeah

(chorus3)

could it really be
is this what you see something to complete in me
my eyes have never seen such glory
it's clear your calling me(it's true) i'm trusting what you see(oh yeah) i'm waiting patiently(ohhh) as my life reflects all around me i accept what you give to me and it's clear that it's more than a dream

this is what you mean this is really all for me cause it's more than i can dream of
this is what you see something to complete in me and it's more than i can dream of

(repeat chorus4 and then 3)
