

Razorlight, Can't Stop This Feeling I've Got

I can't stop this feeling I've got,
I know who I am and I know what im not,
I know where ive been and I know what Ive lost
But I cant stop this feeling ive got
Wasnt looking ahead and I heard
Didnt I see, didnt I learn
And I dont know what you mean to me
But im starting to think its just a mystery

I can't stop this feeling I've got,
I know who I am and I know what im not
I know where ive been and I know what ive lost
But I cant stop this feeling ive got
Wasnt looking ahead and I heard
Didnt I see, didnt I learn

I may be right you may disagree
But im starting to think its just a mystery
Whatever it is its just a mystery

Ah you dont really look so easy
You spend a lifetime looking for someone
And then they come and youre just so uneasy
You get the feeling that if I dont come
Then theres one more story be on your way

And I can't stop this feeling I've got,
I know who I am and I know what im not
I know where ive been and I know what ive lost
But I cant stop this feeling ive got

The sky may fall, the sea may split
You may say that isnt it
I may be right you may disagree
Same old story same old me
And I dont know what you mean to me
But im starting to think its just a mystery
Ive got to admit its just a mystery
