

RBD, Slowly

I am-losing my head and all of control illusinating that im somewhere im not underneath a shadow of a castle in which theres only me and you in a party that doesnt want to end im seduced by the music and you the owner of my life and my prince charming the one that makes me go crazy and makes me move my hips side to side

Real

Chorus:

slowly

i dont want the dream i have to end while im dancing

slowly

you dream RBD with Luny Tunes

slowly

dancing in an animated cartoon

slowly

do it real slowly

dance real slowly(x2)

(anahi)

They were in the river of the room the low water cascade with much pressure

This dream does not have any explanation

Is a madness that accelerates the heart

(dul)

And is a celebration in our castle theres no one but me and you and I do not want anything but that to dance alone with you side to side and...

Chorus

(poncho)

I do not want them to wake me up of this dream do not make me put my foot down on the ground

Today dont clear my illusion of me being your owner

I dont want to say the way this book closes the night doesnt finish and much less does our love

You'll be my loved one-in my story-in my history and in my show

Meanwhile time passes I like you more and I wont leave the dream baby that united to us

(may)

Baby dont leave from me do not change our destiny

I feel my heart accelerated

I have discharged by you my pressure and want to know what is your intention of That so you feel the same of that...

Tell me what you feel about dancing reggaeton

Chorus.... (dul y christian)

(chris)

I do not want to wake up of this dream in which I feel That I am with you dancing slowly reggaeton

I do not want to wake up although its the morning

This passion kills me and is driving me crazy
