

Reality Check, Speak To Me

co-existing remedial rhymes with verbal signs disseminating inner visions to contrive broken pieces cobblestones they pull me down redirection for protection confessing animosity when your voice grows faint submission at your feet they feel the stings of complaint doing what it takes I'm taking table crumbs dependence on the one popularity is done expedient the main ingredient as I grasp for the hands of providence to circumvent attacks from the enemy though they come against me will I listen to your voice to infinity speak to me 'cause I long for your grace show me things as I seek your face here I am I'll do anything say what you want from me a contradiction in my directions got me guessing do you listen? not to mention my phones off the hook look I took control of my own path disregarded your wrath stinky like a day without a bath but internal convictions oppose my addictions to inventions less eternal paternal affection from elevated places smiling faces whisper love in aimless spaces I hear your voice won't you let me follow knees bent so we can shoot the breeze signs I can swallow keep the lines open like fiber optic hot like the tropic if your driving this train let me hop it
oh won't you speak to me wha do you want from me

oh won't you
speak to me
