

Reamonn, Faith

Cause I'm not giving up
I'm not running away
There's nowhere left to hide
Cause I'm not going to chance
Change to suit your ways
I'd rather stand and fight

You feel your life gets turned around
You feel your world come crashing down

This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life
This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life

Treat me like you are
Cause I'm unbreakable
I've stood the test of time
Or treat me with contempt
Until the moment ends
Then find somewhere to hide

You feel your life gets turned around
You feel your world come crashing down

This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life
This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life

Building bridges from broken cars

Our salvation in the stars
Pull the blinds and close your eyes
You can't hide from this life

This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life
This is not my faith
This is not my faith
This is not the reason why I live my life

Take me as I am
You know that you can take or leave me
