

Reamonn, If I Go

There's a little part of me
inside of you and it's growing up as you do
And I hope you see this world
through my eyes
But I hope you don't see the tears I cry
But if I go - ah yeah
Well it won't be long
'Cause if I stay...
And I hope you know
that it's not you It's my life and what I do
And I hope you know
that everyday I hold you close in some way
But if I go - ah yeah
Well, it won't be long
'Cause if I stay - ah yeah
Well it all goes wrong
But if I go - ah yeah
Well it won't be long
'Cause if I stay...
There's a little part of me
inside of you
And it's growing up
just like you do
And I hope you see this world
through my eyes
But I hope you don't see
the tears I cry
But if I go - ah yeah
Well it won't be long
'Cause if I stay - ah yeah
Well it all goes wrong
But if I go - ah yeah
Well it won't be long
'Cause if I stay...
