

Rearview Mirror, All Lights Off

Vacated conscience, exposed for the fraud I've been most of my life.

I paid to fix this, from the start I faked everything so surprise.

Sitting, living, more amazed that I'm still breathing.

Forming, informing, everyone's welcome in my home? I stand in the shadows and I am fine.

In the dark I can't see so please turn off the lights.

Everything's black no restriction lines on my open mind? I'm so cold.

More amazed that I'm still breathing.

More amazed, more amazed that I'm still breathing.

More amazed, more amazed that I'm still breathing? I stand in the shadows and I am fine.

In the dark I can't see so please turn off the lights.

Everything's black no restriction lines on my open mind? Sitting, this is not working.

For a time I thought I would be alright.

Sitting, shaking, why I'm still living as nothing? I stand in the shadows and I am fine.

In the dark I can't see so please turn off the lights.

Everything's black and I? I stand in the shadows and I am fine.

In the dark I can't see so please turn off the lights.

Everything's black no restriction lines on my open mind.
