

Rearview Mirror, Animal

You're such? Hurt you, I'd like to see you cry.

Won't you tell me another lie?

Attraction fades with distractions made.

Because I hate your attitude, it's so strange,
and your motivation's deranged.

Complicate as sound resonates in your head? Well you can write your will.

'Cause I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal.

Well you can write your will,

because I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal? You're wasting your energy just like a piece of garbage.

You don't care about your policy.

You fade with the message.

Copped out at the age of 22.

Don't care what your friends want to do.

Start to want to get the feeling back.

Remember your first heart attack.

You're wasting your energy as if you had some to spare,
as if you had some to spare.

You're so sickening to me bitch you're always whining about some stupid shit? Faxing thoughts on Running short of what's satisfying.

Over and over playing in our minds.

And I'm grieving now but later gone.

Dragging today but pressing on.

This cut's not clean and you're stinging me, then before you're dead? Well you can write your will.

'Cause I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal.

Well you can write your will,

because I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal? Sex always on your mind.

Respect hard to find.

Used her like a cheap toy.

And I guess your conscience makes no more noise? Well you can write your will.

'Cause I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal.

Well you can write your will,

because I don't care anymore all about how you feel.

You're such an animal. (3x)

I don't care anymore.

You're so fucked up in the head.
