

Reason To Believe, Next Door

Shed light on me
There were these crazy sounds
Funny feelings, they took me 'round
A couple of steps, one deep breath and
What I found out is that it's the next door down
Where I was supposed to be
Where we felt the most free
Things I never knew about
It was the next door down
Nothing to lose, nothing to prove
How you feel is how you choose
I swear it was here this whole time
What I found out is that it's the next door down
