Reason To Believe, Next Door

Shed light on me There were these crazy sounds Funny feelings, they took me 'round A couple of steps, one deep breath and What I found out is that it's the next door down Where I was supposed to be Where we felt the most free Things I never knew about It was the next door down Nothing to lose, nothing to prove How you feel is how you choose I swear it was here this whole time What I found out is that it's the next door down