Reba McEntire, Silly Me

(Ben Weisman/Robert Etol)

Funny how love comes and goes With the tears that fill my life does it show So listen to my heart beat once again Because of you I hope this feeling never ends

Silly me I fell in love again We started out as friends You'd think I would have learned from the hurt before Foolish me Should I have closed the door Promised, even swore to never love this way Oh foolish me

They say that love's a chance you take You know I've had my share But when the nights get oh so cold I need you there They say that love's a chance you take You know I've had my share But when the nights get oh so cold I need you there

Silly me I fell in love again We started out as friends You'd think I would have learned from the hurt before Foolish me
