

Rebecca Martin, I'm the One

(R. Martin)

In a dream I've seen a man
Dressed in jet black and saying, "
"For as long as I have known you there's been trouble following you."

Like a ghost but human
In my head wanting to touch the sands "
"For as long as I have known you there's been trouble following you."

It's alright
Fly away
What's to come
You needn't say

I'm the one
