

Rebecca Martin, Lead Us

(R. Martin)

Take the reigns
So we both can rise
I've got a handicap
You're the one who must
Lead us now.

Down the road
That twists and sways
Remember once I'd taken us this way
But it's different now
Lead us.

Tell them nothing
Lead us
I'm not ashamed to say
That it takes this man
To get me back to a place
Where I'm feeling
More like a woman.

No matter how strong I am
I can be that and needing
Lead us now
