

Rebekah, Remember To Breathe

Turned on the news today, and I wished I was on some other planet, cause this one is insane.

Little Jimmy shot little Billy, and Hail Mary starved to death trying to look pretty,
and its partly cloudy today

..And lately its all that I can do, and all that I can expect from you is just to...

Remember to Breathe.

The neighbors down the hall,
tell the cops that they can't get involved, and so there's a monster roaming free.

Tell me, which way to heaven coming from hell, and what average of my soul would I have to sell for you to save a place for me..

and lately its all that I can do,
and all I can expect from you is just to...

Remember to breathe...

And I'm having that dream again, there's a door, and no one will let me in,
but funny, when I'm awake its no different.

Yeah, well , I'd like a partner to hold my hand, and give me a reason to believe in something again, cause I'm trying, but i can't

..and lately its all that i can do, and all that i can expect from you is just to..

Remember to Breathe.
