

Rebekka Bakken, Say Goodbye To What Is Gone

Come stay close to me
Stay the night
Let me feel my life has been all right
I have seen something today
And it left me so afraid
I have to give up all beliefs and I

Don't know where to stand
Where to turn
Who I thought I've been for all these years
Disappeared before my eyes
The memories where lies
And now the truth comes daring me, can I

Turn around
Break the bond
Say goodbye to what is gone

Will you stay with me
When I turn
Will you let me go without return
Can I trust I know the truth
Can I trust without a proof
I am to give up all beliefs can I

Turn around
Break the bond
Say goodbye to what is gone
