

Rebelde, Tu amor

Mi amor I'm not sure of the right words to say Maybe these simple words will do best to best explain

What I feel in my heart..

What I feel more each day..

How to make you see..

How to let you know..

How to say how to say how I love you so..

With words you understand

Words that get right through to your heart

Here's the place to start

Tu Amor, I will always be

Tu Amor, means the world to me

Esteras siempre en mi corazon

You're the one in my soul

And I live for tu amor, tu amor

Mi amor love you more with each look in your eyes

Maybe these simple words will do best to best describe

What I feel in my heart

What I'll feel for all time

How to make you see..

How to let you know..

How to say how to say how..

I need you..

With words you understand

Words that get through to your soul

Words that will let you know

Tu Amor, I will always be

Tu Amor, means the world to me

Esteras siempre en mi corazon

You're the one in my soul

And I live for tu amor, tu amor

You're the one that

I need in my arms

Believe me these words

I say are words that come straight from my heart

How do I make you believe

Nothing else means as much as what you mean to me

Tu Amor, I will always be

Tu Amor, means the world to me

Esteras siempre en mi corazon

You're the one in my soul

And I live for tu amor, tu amor
