

Rebolt, High Road Down

Take the high road down

Johnny's getting late it's his fate
He's losing faith in everything great

His baby run away she's not gonna stay
Made a life as a another man's wife

He's reached the top, hit a rock
Gotta find another way back

Take the high road down
X2

There's a rumble in the jungle, you almost stumble
Something big is coming out of the dark

You're running like a dog escaping the fog
You're gonna die if you stay on the track

You've reached the end, around the bend
Gotta find another way back
