

Recover, Pardon The Wait

Pardon the hate and the animosity towards your belief system and your hypocrisy.

No regrets, no remorse.

Take your time to build yourself,
learn from us.

No regrets, no remorse

And i know what you're missing
and i know it's convincing to tell yourself
that you're not a shell,
that you've got something else,
but you're not that strong.

You look around and soon you'll see.
Soon you'll know where you went wrong.
