

Recover, Rodeo

We're taking this on and turning you on!
And we're testing your secrets.
Do you find yourself useful standing there moving nowhere?

Imagine the lives saved
and the movies never made.

We have to whisper. bled and blistered on our own.
Killed with kindness, led by blindness away from home.

A bullet was shot into the air last night.
We're coming out fully loaded.
Do you find yourself useful
standing there doing nothing?

We have to whisper. bled and blistered on our own.
Killed with kindness, led by blindness away from home.

I try so hard, never have enough to say.
It blurs, waivers...focus, just focus.

Imagine the lives saved,
the movies never made,
ticking your life away
and a reason for me to hate.
Blowing up the spot.
