

Red Car Wire, West Coast

Kids are so simple,
They have no problems,
They don't have girlfriends who ignore them and dump them
So why are we still here?
We don't want to waste time,
We don't want to wait,
We want the spotlight or the limelight
Where do we wanna go, where do we wanna go?
The west coast, the west coast
Where do we wanna go, where do we wanna go?
We want the west coast.
Where do we wanna go, where do we wanna go?
The west coast, the west coast
Where do we wanna go, where do we wanna go?
We want the west coast.
We want the west coast.
