

Red Flag, Heaven in Medias Res

My love has died and they have lied
There is no heaven
My lover sleeps and no one weeps
Cause there's no heaven

Set the table, try to dine
But I'm unable to pour the wine
Only one glass still remains
Sadly for me, no one complains

Then night falls and she calls
No longer my name, my name

My love has died and they have lied
There is no heaven
My lover sleeps and no one weeps
Cause there's no heaven

I cry out loud but my tears do not fall
They have all cried and died with my love
