

Red Hot Chili Peppers, Halo

I'm the man, i'm the king
I'm the one thats pure inside
Everyday, Everyway
I smell of suicide
Bitter sins how they grow within
So you tell me it ain't right
I am all sins and you're my reason for life

I will stone you, stone you
Wrap my arms around you
I will stone you, stone you
My little halo

I'm the man, I'm the king
I'm the one that's broken from giving
Everyday, everyway
I swear just one last try Killing me with the death to be Something that's so right
I am all sins, my hands are scarred with time

I will stone you, stone you
wrap my arms around you
I will stone you, stone you
My little halo

I'm the man with the rock in his hand, got the rock in my hand gonna stone you stone you
