

Red Hot Chili Peppers, Not the One

I'm not the person that you thought I was
I'm not the one you thought you knew
I do most anything to make you think that I'm the one
I do it all to get to you
You've seen me as the perfect compliment
You think that I'm someone to chose
You see me in a way that makes me want to be in bed
A person I could turn into

Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll wanna come
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run
Blue strides are calling and I can't stop fallin'
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run

I don't look like myself in photographs
Long days of time have been unkind
I miss the you, the one that makes me want to redefine
I'm not the one you fell into
I'm not the one, the one for you

Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll wanna come
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run
Blue strides are calling and I can't stop fallin'
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run

Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll wanna come
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run
Blue strides are calling and I can't stop fallin'
Give me the love and I'll tell you when I'll want to run
