

Red Hot Chili Peppers, Savoir

Dusting off your savior
You were always my favorite
Always my man
All in a hand
To celebrate you is greater
Now that I can
Always my man
Now you see what I came for
No one here is to blame for Misunderstand
All in a hand
Just like you cause you make me
All that I am
All in a hand
A butterfly that flaps its wings
Affecting almost everything
The more I hear the orchestra
The more I have something to bring
And now I see you in a beautiful and different light
He's just a man and any damage done will be all right
Call out my name
Call and I came
Dusting off your savior
Forgiving any behavior
He's just a man
All in a hand
Your hero's destined to waver
Anyone can
Always my man
I would never betray you
Look at me who could raise you
Face in the sand
Safe in your hand
You were always my favorite
Always my man
All in a hand
We are the red hots
And we're loving lots the love me nots
The flowers in your flower pot
Are dancing on the table tops
And now I see you in a beautiful and different light
He's just a man and everything he does will be all right
Call out my name
Call and I came
Dusting off your savior
The life that you have narrated
You were my man
