

Red Hot Chili Peppers, Someone

Someone

There are no worries for someone

Life's in no hurry for someone

There are no worries for

Nothing major or too complicated

Just a friendly wager that we orchestrated

For someone

Someone

Cut my heart out

With a feather

And put an end

To any extra pressure

For someone

There are no worries for someone

Life's in no hurry for someone

There are no worries for

Ride around on mellow waves of mercy

And fill the space with lack of controversy

For someone

Someone

Set it up to follow you

On my aeroplane

Here's a present

For the future memory lane

Someone

There are no worries for someone

Life's in no hurry for someone

There are no worries for

Light it up the room

She sang into any twane

Hit 'em up 'cause you got me

A moth to your flame

Someone

There are no worries for someone

Life's in no hurry for someone

There are no worries for me

For me

For me

For me
