

Red House Painters, Rock N' Roll Singer

(Young, Young, Scott)

My Daddy worked from nine to five
Momma stayed home with me
By the time I was half alive
I knew what I was gonna be
I left school and grew my hair
They didn't understand
They wanted me to be respected as
A doctor or a lawyer man

I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll singer
I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll star
Gonna be a rock 'n' roll singer
I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll star

As I grew up I worked real hard
So I could buy a guitar
I wanted to be on the top one day
I wanted to be a star
I could see my name in lights and I could can see the queue
I had the devil in my blood
Tellin' me what to do

I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll singer
I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll star
Gonna be a rock 'n' roll singer
I'm gonna be a rock 'n' roll star
