

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry, She Said

There's nothing wrong, I'm just holding on
To a brighter place, where the light is strong
There's a space inside, where I like to hide
There's a place I go to forget the lies
There's a place alone where I like to go
Where the sky is clear and the sun is gold
She said, she said
Keep shining on, my world is strong
I'm just holding out, I'm just hanging on There's a place inside, where I like to hide
There's a place I dream to forget the lies
There's a place alone where I like to go
Where the sky is clear and the sun is gold
She said, she said
