

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry, You Only Get What You

On the telephone I hear your ringing tones
You've been short changed, there's only you to blame Because, you only get what you pay for
And you're going to pay for what you've got You only get what you pay for
And you're going to pay, you're going to pay, you're going to pay
For what you've got
Feed the machine, and keep your conscience clean
You won't get no change... no change
