Red Sovine, Love Is

Yes love is morning after mem'ries...

Love is blue skies and white clouds touching the valleys of green And love is walking in the sunshine in my oldest faded jeans Love is a pink footed puppy running carefree by our side And love is love I have for you honey that I just can't seem to hide Don't want no fancy clothes and don't need no party wine For I've got your sweet sweet love and you've got all of mine Love is morning after mem'ries of the night that we had before And love is warm and tender feelings cause I love you more and more ( steel )
