

Redcore, Saturated

I got a feelin' that inside your head
Resides the thoughts of emptiness in vain
I got a feelin' that inside your head
An enchanted path is leading the way

I know it can be disposed
All clogged up into your brain
Saturated with shit that's implanted
By others that are just not the same.

I feel Saturated
So Saturated

Awaken, triggered by a sign
Intuition speaks and reveals what's to gain
I know it belongs to the soul
All the answers for you to be sage

You know it can be disposed
All clogged up into your brain
Saturated with shit that's implanted
By others that are just not the same.

I feel saturated
So Saturated

You can fight it
It's your mental role
Feel it risin'
Will you ever... Ever know?

I feel saturated
So Saturated
