

Redd Kross, Kiss The Goat

Oh, fifty cents
For a dead man's eye, yeah
Everything in sight
Anything that money can buy - oh yeah
I took on a chance
On a dance with the ocean - move so slow
Invisible phantom motion
(Phantom me-motion-invisible Phantom motion)

On and on dictates the groove
I found that I - I found I had no shoes

One foot in front
One foot behind me
The evil eye
It made me walk the line - oh no
A girl was there
She had a pompous glare
I held her hand
Had to be her man
(Had to be her - Had to be her - Man - man - yeah)

On and on dictates the groove
I found that I - I found I had no shoes

I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I want to go home

No turning back
You've made you choices
It's time for you
It's time for you to kiss the goat

I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I

I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I want to go home again
I want to go home
