

Redd Kross, Teen Competition

I thought
I'd take this time to write to you
Letters -
From fans inspire your
Magic lies - girls and guys
You make us want to cry
Teen competition

We sit -
And listen very closely to you
Feel your, your wisdom
And your magic lies
Girls and guys
You make us want to cry
Cry - Cry - Cry - Cry

Dedications from up above

The kids all pledge their love
To you
Obey - don't ask why
Good and evil in your eyes
Come on

Poorly crafted spells
Won't accidentally turn us to dust
They won't
Magic lies
Girls and guys
They make us want to cry
Cry - Cry - Cry
We get high
