

Rediscover, My Pretty Eyes

Tell me did you want to lie... sometimes, tell me did you want to smile, when i cried you can tell me
i promise: i will not laugh
yeah, you can tell me.
i could care less about that.

tell me did you want to die sometimes,
well you can tell me
yeah, you can tell me.

and i just wanna feel you close to me and i just wanna feel you feeling me
i just wanna
i just wanna
i just wanna sleep here i just wanna feel you feeling me cause tonight will be the last night that you'll ever see... my pretty eyes.

and you can finally sleep without your telephone ringing and you can finally be better, better without me

well you can tell me
yeah, you can tell me.

i just wanna
i just wanna
i just wanna sleep here

that you'll ever see... my pretty eyes.
and you can finally sleep without your telephone ringing
and you can finally be better,

i just wanna
i just wanna
i just wanna sleep here

(i just wanna) cause tonight will be the last night (i just wanna) that you'll ever see my pretty eyes.
and you can finally sleep without your telephone ringing
and you can finally be better,

you fell down so get back up kid well i did, so call me when you get this
