

Rednex, The Sad But True Story Of Ray Mingus

It's been pretty long time baby but now i'm back in town it's time to leave our husband now u know that little clown Last time we were seeing didn't u beg for more it's okey with me as long as you do it 4 on the floor This is what i'm giving u u'll get it all to night u will b my lover but not my tendered wife I'll b harder than your husband i'll b harder than your man i'll hit u with my twenty inch until u can not stand I've missed the little north-pole on the bottom of my twister here's the one-eyedworm now u'll never b a sister Well it's time to leave now u better walk on home don't forget your underwears u look pretty stoned
