

Redwood (Switzerland), Merry Christmas!

For days before Christmas 2006, our car went up in flames outside the recording studio in Germany. Enjoy the muffled sound of the explosion and the band's reaction to it.

Strangely enough, this was our third totalled vehicle and the second one that caught fire. At one point in our career we must have offended the gods of automotive transportation.

If you would like to donate a van (or a fire extinguisher for that matter) please send an email to ...
