

REDZED, I Need A Rehab

There is nothing bad happening to me
It is all in my head, it is all in my head
I'm walking in the street as a fiend
Thinking all is my bad, thinking all is my bad
I'm acting like a stranger to me
That's a feeling I get, that's a feeling I get!
Yes, I've been going crazy, indeed
Thinking I should swallow lead, thinking I should swallow lead

All I wanna do is get drunk and fly
There's nothing more that I can do to feel might
I'm looking in the mirror, and the gaze's so blind
Maybe I should take care of my health or nevermind
All I wanna do is get drunk and fly
There's nothing more that I can do to feel might
I'm looking in the mirror, and the gaze's so blind
Maybe I should take care of my health or nevermind

I'm lost up in this void
And know that I'm destroyed
I can't feel no joy
Boozing my only toy

Are you with me? Are you with me?
Are you with me in this time?
Oh dad, are you with me? Are you with me?
Are you with me on other side?
