

REDZED, NO MORE TEARS IN HEAVEN

Yeah, I keep on walkin' with these broken bones
Maybe one day they will finally take me home
Nothing breaks 'em more than the things you do
Nothing makes me whole, I can't fight the gloom
Something makes me feel like I don't wanna die
Something makes me feel just like I am alive
But it goes away way too quickly now
I see it in the wind, I can't stop it now

Why can't you leave me alone?
Why won't you be with me?
Why can't you leave me alone?
Why won't you be with me?

Give me some power
There's a flower rotting on my gravestone
My gravestone, yeah, yeah
Miss me, don't forget me
And throw a powder there, 'cause I say so
Just throw it in the casket

Only smoking when I'm drinking, but I always drink
Sinking when I'm thinking and I always think
Scared of all the lies, wish I never knew
Thinking that my past gave me something new

Why can't you leave me alone?
Why won't you be with me?
Why can't you leave me alone?
Why won't you be with me?
